IN

WRIT PETITION No.16931 OF 2005

ON BEING MENTIONED

ORDER: (per the Hon'ble Smt Justice T. Meena Kumari)

The matter has come up under the caption 'for being mentioned' seeking clarification of the Order dated 27.07.2005 passed by this Court in Writ Petition No.16931 of 2005.

It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner against the orders of the first respondent vide G.O.Ms.No.243 dated 10.06.2005 reverting her to the post of Assistant Professor from the post of Professor, approached the Andhra Pradesh Administrative Tribunal, Hyderabad by way of filing O.A.No.2738 of 2005 and the Tribunal without even going into the merits of the case, disposed of the O.A. Challenging the same, she filed this Writ Petition and this Court heard this writ petition along with other similar cases. Learned counsel states that the first batch of cases relates to those persons who approached this Court against the orders of the Tribunal in O.As and the second batch relates to those who approached this Court directly. It is further stated that this Court remanded the first batch of writ petitions filed against the orders of the Tribunal to the Tribunal for fresh consideration and directed the petitioners in the second batch of Writ Petitions, who filed them directly before this Court without suffering any order from the Tribunal, to avail the alternative remedy before the Tribunal.

The learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner fall in the first batch of writ petitions since she filed the Writ Petition against the orders of the Tribunal, but inadvertently, the writ petition filed by the petitioner, was separated from the first batch of writ petitions, and prayed that the writ petition filed by the petitioner also be disposed of in terms of the order passed in the first batch of Writ Petitions. Therefore, she filed the present petition.

Since the error pointed out by the petitioner is genuine, we feel it just and proper to delete Writ Petition No.16931 of 2005 from the second batch of Writ Petitions viz., Writ Petition No.16369 of 2005 and batch, and pass an order as passed in the first batch of writ petitions.

Accordingly, we dispose of Writ Petition No.16931 of 2005 setting aside the order of the Tribunal and remand the matter to the Tribunal for fresh consideration and the Tribunal is directed to dispose of the O.A. in terms of the Order passed by this Court in the first batch of Writ Petitions i.e. Writ Petition No.15196 of 2005 dated 27.07.2005 within a period of three moths from the date of receipt of a copy of the order.

Registry is directed to delete Writ Petition No.16931 of 2005 from the second batch of Writ Petitions viz., Writ Petition No.16369 of 2005 and batch and issue amended orders to the parties concerned.

The Petition is accordingly ordered.
